

Rudy Amato THE VEGAS EXPERIENCE

---

A singer, a live orchestra, and timeless classics are the perfect mix for a non-stop journey back in time. Rudy Amato is a dynamic performer doing just that, and bringing us back to the “Golden Age” of music.

Rudy features a “Vegas Style” show complete with live musicians, comedy, singing impersonations, and a few surprises along the way. He pays tribute to such artists as, Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Bobby Darrin, Louis Armstrong, Louis Prima, Tom Jones, Barry Manilow, The Greats of Motown, and of course the King, Elvis Prestly.

Consider booking a great show that is sure to please and be entertaining for audiences of all ages!

---

Rudy Amato: The Vegas Experience

➤ 1 Conductor/Music Director

- Rudy travels with his music director in order to produce the highest quality performance in all venues.

➤ 9 Piece Orchestra

- Orchestra breakdown is 3 Saxophones (Alto, Tenor, Baritone) whom all double on Clarinet and Flue, 2 Trumpets, 1 Trombone, Piano, Bass, and Drums. Orchestra musicians will be contracted from the area the performance is taking place.

➤ 2 Back-up Vocalist

- Back up vocalist will be provided by Rudy Amato

Biographies.....

Rudy C. Amato, Performer

Rudy Amato was born in Buffalo, NY and currently resides in Kansas City, MO. He has worn many hats over the years, but his favorite is to perform. Rudy is a dynamic singer and presence on stage offering the audience the show of a lifetime, every time.

Rudy has performed in a number of venues such as, The Copa Room, The Liberty Theater, Harrah's Casino, Ameristar Casino, and in such cities as, Chicago, New York, Lake Tahoe, and Saint Louis. Rudy has received the honor of singing the National Anthem at the Kansas City Chiefs Stadium.

Rudy, being of Italian heritage, has performed at many Italian Festivals throughout the United States, including one in particular where he had the opportunity to co/perform with comedian and singer, Joe Piscapo.

J.R. Farley, Music Director

J.R. Farley is a native of Fairmont, West Virginia, and is an active conductor, arranger, and performer. His musical education began at the age of six as a piano student. He later studied voice, euphonium, and percussion, and furthered his musical education at both Alderson-Broaddus College and Fairmont State University.

J.R. is a highly commissioned arranger for many high school, college, and professional groups, as well as a few famed groups. He has also received the honor of guest conducting with The Wheeling Symphony Orchestra and The Disney World Band and Orchestra. He has played with, The Royals, Jr. Pezz, The Skinnys, and The Orlando Colombo Orchestra. J.R. has also had the opportunity to back up such artists as Johnny Belmont and The Skyliners, Johnny Tillotson, Shades of Blue, Gianni Russo, and Vito Picone and The Elegants.

J.R. Farley is thoroughly pleased to now be the music director and arranger for Rudy Amato and the Vegas Experience.